A gain the Secretary for Railways in his letter No 404 D 21/2/03 reports that the quantity of salt imported into the Mysore State from Madras (through M. Ry ~~Comptr~~) ~~Mad~~ for the last 3 official years was as follows:—

1899-1900 — 1961 tons
1900-1901 — 2540 - do —
1901-1902 — 1867 - do —

And states that the figures for 1901-02 are merely a reversion of those of previous years and that the year 1900-1901 was exceptional in the fact that a large quantity of the Athipet (a special large grained) salt found favour in Bangalore and was largely exported from Madras. The supply of this salt from the Govt factories having come to a stop he states that the import was ~~slightly~~ less this year as compared with 1900-1901. and Madras Railway Companies, the imports from the Bombay Presidency and Sind in 1901-02 appear to have been more than in the previous year, being 3,86,333 against 2,92,261 maunds, while those from Madras were less by 22016 maunds, ~~or about 786 tons~~ as shewn in the accompanying Statement

2. The agent, Southern Mahratta Railway explains in this connection, that owing to Competition in 1901 with the G.I.P Railway, low rates had been quoted from certain Stations in the Bombay Presidency Situated on the Southern Mahratta

2. These figures differ considerably from those contained in your letter as being furnished to the Madras Government. As there are no independent statistics on which the Darbar can base their estimate of Mahratta Railway line to Hindupur and other some important Stations in the Mysore State, the consequence being that Salt was not imported direct from Bombay but was booked in the first instance to Stations in the Bombay Presidency and rebooked thence to stations in the Mysore State Railway. This he states, may have given rise to the belief that the gross imports from Bombay had fallen off, which was not, however the case

3. As for the decrease in the import of Salt from Madras, the imports, they are unable to furnish any explanation for the discrepancy between the figures or to say which of them are the correct ones. I to append copies of explanations furnished by the Railway agents of the Companies Concerned.

I have &c

the agent and manager, Madras Railway State, that during 1900-1901, which was only a exceptional, a large quantity of the "Athipet" (a special large grained) salt found favour in Bangalore and was largely imported from Madras. The supply of this salt from Government factories, however, having come to a Sudden Stop, the import for 1901-02 was about the Same for the year 1899-1900 viz: 1961 tons or 54908 maunds.

The Dewan of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, 16-12-1902

SIR,

I am directed to state that it has been brought to the Resident's notice that there has been a decrease in the import of salt into the Mysore State.

2. From the returns furnished to the Madras Government, it appears that the direct imports of salt by rail from the Bombay Presidency and Goa into Mysore fell from 434168 maunds in 1900-1901 to 389,687 maunds in 1901-1902, and that there was likewise a decrease in the imports from Madras from 69,235 maunds to 47,455 maunds. This decrease amounting to 66,261 maunds in all could not have been made good by supplies from the South Canara district as the imports into that district from Bombay by sea were in excess of those of 1900-1901 by only 7541 maunds.

3. Colonel Robe tson will be glad if the Darbar can furnish him with information as to the cause of this decrease.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

With reference to your docket-
No. R 2794-802 dated 13th instant asking me to furnish a statement shewing the quantity of salt imported by rail from Bombay and Goa and Madras in 1900-1901 and in 1901-1902 and to explain the cause of the large decrease in the imports between the two years
I have the honour to state that-

I presume that this refers to rail borne traffic only. This can be only ascertained by a reference to the Railway authorities concerned, who may not be able to give the figures for each District separately for obvious reasons, for example, the traffic at the Harihar Railway Station finds its way both into Chitaldroog and Shimoga Districts. If the quantity imported by railway has fallen short as observed by the Residency, there must have been a corresponding increase in the quantity of salt imported from the west coast, for which also no statistics are available in this office.

I can state with confidence that there is no illicit manufacture of salt anywhere in the District.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

that this decrease in the import has been stated by the local merchants to be due to plague in this District, merchants being afraid to travel freely. No remark

Salt is reported on enquiry to be imported to this taluk from Bombay. It is reported that merchants of the taluk get salt from Cochin and Mysore and that no earth salt is manufactured there in order that the import of salt may be affected.

The Amildar reports that it cannot be ascertained how much quantity was received from Goa or Bombay or Madras, but however that the salt is received from Mangalore and Bangalore and the approximate quantity as ascertained from the merchants is that noted in the respective Column

The Amildar reports that salt is generally imported from Bombay and that the merchants

A/P has been reported that the statistics are given as per "Trade Return" for the years 1900-01 & 1901-02 as no accurate statistics could be obtained from the merchants, and that the salt is being imported from Mangalore.

The Amildar reports that it is not possible to state the exact quantity of salt imported from either Bombay or Goa or Madras and that in consequence he has given the figures that had been furnished in the "Return of Trade" for 1900-01 & 1901-02. Submitted to Government.

In compliance with the request contained in your No. 337, dated the 21st January 1903, I have the honor to forward herewith a statement showing the quantity of salt imported by Railway into the Mysore Province from (1) the Bombay Presidency and Goa and (2) from Madras, during the official years 1900-1901 and 1901-1902, from which it will be seen that the total weight carried was greater in the latter than in the former year. Owing to competition in 1901 with the G.I.P. Railway, we had quoted low rates from certain stations in the Bombay Presidency situated on this Railway to Hindupur and other impotant stations in the Mysore state, the consequence being that salt was not imported direct from Bombay, but was booked in the first instance to stations in the Bombay Presidency and re-booked thence to stations on the Mysore state Railway, which may have given rise to the belief that the gross imports from Bombay had fallen off, which was not, however, the case.

In reply to your letter No. 338 dated 21st ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that the quantity of Salt Exported from Madras to the Mysore State, for the last 3 official years, was as under:-

1899-1900 = 1961 tons
1900-1901 = 2540 "
1901-1902 = 1867 "

It will be noticed that the figures for the last official year as to which you enquire, are merely a revision* to those of previous years, the year 1900-1901 having been exceptional in the fact that a large quantity of the Attipat (a special large grained) salt found favor in Bangalore and was largely exported from Madras. The supply of this salt from the Government factories, however, came to a sudden stop.

No-404 Dated 21-2-1903. R 1992 ✓

Sir,

With reference to your No
R. 2794-802 dated 13th January 1903 call-ing for a statement showing the quantity of salt imported into the District from Bombay, Goa and Madras and requesting me to explain the decrease in the import of the article in 1901-02 as compared with that of 1900-1901, I have the honor to state that as salt is not one of the commodities on which octroi duty is levied, there is no reliable record of importation of the said article, nor any information available as to what quantity was received from Bombay and Madras;
the only data being the statements of the larger dealers in salt at Taluk

Head Quarters, and other important Centres. In this District, the towns of Kolar, Bowringpet, and Chintamani are the only places that receive a direct supply of Salt, the former two from Madras, and the last from Madras and Nellore. The other Taluks have no direct supply; Malur and Mulbagal receiving supply from Bowringpet or Kolar; Srinivaspur and Sidlaghatta from Chintamani; and the taluks of Chickballapur, Goribidnur, Bagepalli and the Sub taluk of Gudibanda from Bangalore or Hindupur. Salt in Hindu households being a daily article of consumption the demand for the article cannot have fallen to any great extent.

2 It may however be stated that before the appearance of plague in the District merchants were freely importing Salt, and always had a large stock on hand, but that since the outbreak of the epidemic only a limited supply, just sufficient to meet current demands of the market, are ordered, and there must therefore be necessarily a decrease in the total quantity imported. Local salt also has probably been more largely used. —

3 As no accounts of the imports of salt is maintained no correct information is procurable for the preparation and submission of the statement called for in the above. —

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obd't Servant,

R. C. Lee

Deputy Commissioner
Kolar District.

Sir

Referring to your docket No R 2794-802 Dated I3th January I903 (and two subsequent reminders as per margin) requesting to be furnished with a statement shewing the quantity of salt imported from (I) Bombay and Goa and (2) Madras, into the Mysore District during the years I900-0I and I90I-02 respectively and also with explanation for the cause of the large decrease in the imports between the two periods, I have the honor to state as follows:-

No. 3128-33 dt 10.2.03
No. 3310-5 dt 19.2.03

2 As regards the cause of decrease in the imports of sea-salt during the period alludedto, almost all the Amildars and Assistant Commissioners in charge of Taluks are unanimous in assigning the same, to the appearance of Plague and the consequent general depression of commerce in the principal trade centres in the District. I also agree with them. One or two Amildars have also suggested that the decrease during the year I90I-02 might have been due to the abnormally large quantity of salt imported during the preceeding year which would naturally leave a greater quantity in stock for the succeeding year. But this opinion is based purely upon the information supplied by some of the local merchants and has no other reliable data.

2 the reports received from the several Amildars and the Municipal Vice Presidents Mysore go to shew that no trustworthy information is available as regards the quantity of Salt imported during the two years in question. The only means of obtaining reliable information on the subject, is through the Railway authorities. The Sub Division Officer reports that the Traffic Manager of the S.M. Railway has been addressed and that his reply is awaited. I have also written to the Station Master Mysore, but he has not replied. I have therefore addressed the Traffic Manager this day and his reply will be communicated to you as soon as it is received.
